KITCHEN:
"I generally do not specify appliances, but step in when it has to do with the overall appearance and location of each one," says Denise.

DINING:
Art, like this painting purchased on the street eons ago, informed the palette. "We paired down to those that were really her favorite and the ones that were most interesting," says Denise.

LIVING:
Denise brought all new furnishings to the newly decluttered space, including an electric fireplace.

BEDROOM:
Window treatments blend into walls for a continuous look, making rooms appear larger.

BATHROOM:
Porcelain tile is offset by a decorative marble inset.
